

Alveston Leys

Your local Bupa care home in Stratford-upon-Avon.

Set in an elegant Georgian residence

Here in the pretty village of Alveston we welcome those in need of nursing and residential care, including specialist Huntington's and Parkinson's care.

We're close to the River Avon and just five miles from Stratford, a charming medieval market town with interesting shops as well as theatres and museums. Stratford also offers a butterfly centre, walks along the river and canal, and boat trips from the town centre.

Our care team

At Alveston Leys, we're all highly trained in providing 24-hour tailored care. We get to know each resident personally, so we can make sure we get the balance between support and independence just right. This provides peace of mind for families and a safe and comfortable home for residents.

"They have made my Mum so welcome and feel like it's her home. The staff are so kind and caring towards her, I have seen her face gone of worry. The entertainment is wonderful and they involve everyone together to gel and make friends."

What we offer

Our home is arranged into different areas for different types of care, but all residents can enjoy pleasant surroundings, high quality care, and real warmth and friendliness. Our beautiful period building feels very homely, with original features such as a majestic staircase and large windows.

Types of care

- Nursing
- Residential
- Convalescence
- Short stay
- Palliative
- Day care
- Huntington's
- Parkinson's

Nursing care

Nurses are on duty at all times for residents in need of nursing care, which is particularly helpful if their condition requires regular medical attention.

Variety of comfortable bedrooms

We have 53 attractive rooms, six of which are ideal for couples. You can also expect:

- en suite W/C and hand basin in each ground floor room
- en suite W/C, shower and bath in all other rooms
- garden views from many rooms
- flat screen TV.

Services available to all

- GP visits within the home or at the practice
- Visits from specialist district nurses such as speech and language, tissue viability and mental health
- Advice from a dietician
- Religious services
- Wifi throughout the home
- Laundry and cleaning

Plus, for an additional cost, residents can benefit from:

- chiropody
- visits to a dentist
- eye care from an optician
- on-site hairdresser

Shared areas around the home

There are lots of places to relax. Our residential wing, for example, has a conservatory and a lounge, with patio doors onto the terrace. Nursing residents have a conservatory, too. And our Lavender Wing, with its own lounge, looks out over the grounds.

Our mature garden is wheelchair friendly. There are huge cedar trees, a gazebo, and outdoor seating with lots of summer flowers.

Speak to us about costs

Our fees vary depending on the care needed and the bedroom chosen. We'd be happy to run through costs and answer any questions.

Life at Alveston Leys

This is a calm and peaceful community. Our food is temptingly good, and there's always plenty to join in with. Family and friends are welcome at any time, whether it's to catch up over coffee or to have a manicure together.

Activities

Our activity coordinators arrange lots to do, including for the less mobile. Residents can choose to enjoy:

- outings to Stratford and places like the garden centre
- visiting entertainers
- gentle gardening, music and movement, and seated yoga
- Knit and Natter group
- animal visitors such as ponies, owls and wild creatures
- reminiscence activities
- pamper sessions, manicures and aromatherapy
- quizzes, bingo and other games

Residents can carry on with most of their existing hobbies here. They can also suggest something they'd like to try, as a group or in their room.

Fresh, healthy food

Residents can choose to enjoy their delicious meals in the social surroundings of our dining rooms or in the comfort of their own room. There are always plenty of favourites on the menu, with tasty snacks available throughout the day.

When they arrive, we talk to each resident about their likes and dislikes and any special dietary or cultural needs.

Meal times

Set meal times ensure that residents can enjoy their food without interruption.

Celebrating special occasions

We have several areas where families can host private events such as birthday or Christmas parties. We'll just need to know in advance. We can also cater for you, for an additional fee.

Visits from family and friends

Family and friends can pop by at any time for coffee or an activity. If you'll be having a meal with us, just let us know and tell us about any dietary requirements.

Our palliative wing has its own kitchenette and small dining area which families are welcome to use.

“Staff have shown nothing but kindness and patience. My husbands room is comfortable, and the food is good. There is plenty of stimulation for the residents with craft groups, cookery, singing, outings to the pub and walks. The gardens are a joy to sit in with a lovely terrace to socialise. I can't praise Alveston Leys enough.”
