Testimonials

Elmfield clearly demonstrates the benefits of having your relative cared for by a small independent family run care home. It is so friendly and well run, residents have their individual care needs catered for but there is also the friendliness and companionship between staff and other residents similar to the family unit. The staff really care and always make time available to listen and talk to relatives and residents when there are worries or concerns to discuss. They are approachable and do their best to resolve issues satisfactorily. The home is kept very clean and residents are encouraged to get involved in activities and choices, so that individual needs can be catered for and satisfied. I'm very happy that my relative is a resident at Elmfield and can relax in the knowledge that they are safe and well looked after.

My 94-year-old mother has been a resident in this care home now for over 4 years and I cannot fault it in any way. The owners, manageress and all the staff go out of their way to make this a home from home. My mother suffers from dementia and is now very frail but all the staff have time for her and she is treated with the utmost respect. I would not hesitate to recommend this home to anyone and frequently do.

Elmfield has lived up to our expectations. We were looking for a small, personal and friendly environment where my Aunt would settle quickly. This is exactly what happened..... Staff interact extremely well with residents and are very caring and efficient..... The manager has a complete understanding of the resident's needs and always takes the time out to discuss things with me.

"The staff at Elmfield are excellent and there are great interactions between staff and resident's. They really take the time to understand the resident's needs. Elmfield has exceeded my expectations: great care has been taken to get my mum on a level where she is better than she has been for years. Thank-you for looking after mum so well!" S. I was very impressed with how homely the residence is and my mother's room is lovely, very clean and comfortable. I was happy and surprised to see all of the range of activities. The staff are wonderful, very kind and caring. To quote my mother 'They talk to me, not at me.' I am overwhelmed by their kindness. The manager's understanding is top notch, we could not ask for any better treatment and she is kind, caring and informative. My mother is very lucky to be at Elmfield."

Elmfield House is a lovely, family-run care home. My Dad has been there for nearly two years and loves being there. He always tells me what a marvelous place it is to be with friendly staff and manager. The home provides daily, freshly cooked meals with a varied menu for residents to choose from. There are plenty of activities planned throughout the year including a Tea dance, trips to the local pub and community centre, they also have regular visits from entertainers, like Tina "high kicks and heals" and Elvis! The manager there is excellent and has a strong belief that residents should also be part of a community and arranged for the local school children to visit weekly to talk to residents and do activities with them. Elmfield House is a lovely happy place, I could not wish for a better place for my Dad to be knowing he is happy and being cared for. I have no hesitation in recommending Elmfield House to anyone wishing to place their loved one into care. It's a real home from home."
