OUR HOME IS... Your home

Greetland is situated within the metropolitan borough of Calderdale, West Yorkshire. The origins of Greetland may trace back to a Roman settlement, potentially named Cambodunum. This stems from the discovery of a Roman alter stone dating back to 208AD, found in 1597 at Top Bank in Greenland.

There are a number of landmarks, including Clay House and Calderdale Way to be found in Greetland.

We are proud that our home really is the perfect place for you to call your home.
