It’s all about the care

Personal care at its heart

Our residents are at the heart of everything we do, and their wellbeing is our highest priority. We are proud to deliver care to the very highest standards.

We believe in person-centred care. By getting to know each individual who lives with us, we can provide support tailored to their unique needs, preferences and routines.

A home with warmth and understanding

We believe residents should enjoy life in an atmosphere of warmth, harmony and understanding, supported by people who respect their privacy, dignity and freedom of choice.

Working closely with Dementia UK

At Kings Court, we provide all-inclusive, compassionate and personalised residential, dementia and respite care for up to 66 residents in our modern, welcoming and comfortable households.
