Five Star Reviews

"Both my parents are 92 years old and until recently fairly independent. The initial care was for one hour per day in the morning, but after my father's fall we increased the care to three times per day. Kingsway management were very helpful, visiting Dad in hospital to assess his mobility and arrange a hospital bed at home.

The carers are excellent, providing assistance not only with the daily chores but also with conversation. My mother calls the carers 'my friends.' I highly recommend Kingsway Care."
