For many of us, food is a great delight – and at The Porterbrook we aim to please! One of our most fantastic features is the wealth of dining options we have available to our residents, their families and friends. With a restaurant on each floor, in-room dining available and the option to dine alfresco on our scenic balcony during the summer - you'll feel spoilt for choice!

We pride ourselves on the high standard of food we provide - which is why you can expect all meals to be of restaurant standard.

Our Head Chef works closely with residents to create delicious menus based on personal preferences and, naturally, we can cater for any dietary needs, too.

Private dining

In addition to our restaurant-style dining rooms, residents are able to book exclusive use of our Celebration Room to enjoy private dining with friends and family.
